Access to Acceleration (A2A) Funding Limits

A2A funding is subject to Arkansas Division of Higher Education limits. Students and parents should review the limits below before selecting courses.

Annual A2A limit	Maximum of 30 credit hours per academic year, including Fall, Spring, Summer I, and Summer II.
Semester A2A limit	Maximum of 15 credit hours per semester.
Student financial responsibility	Credit hours, tuition, fees, textbooks, or other educational expenses not covered by A2A may be billed to the student and/or parent/guardian.
Example	A student enrolled in 18 credit hours in one semester would receive A2A funding for only the first 15 eligible credit hours; the remaining 3 credit hours would be the student/family responsibility.

Student/Parent Acknowledgements

☐ I understand the student must meet UAEACC concurrent participation requirements, including required application documents, transcript, GPA/placement standards, and high school approval for course enrollment.

☐ I understand that all college grades earned through concurrent enrollment become part of the student's official UAEACC transcript and may affect future college admission, scholarships, A2A eligibility, and federal financial aid standards.

☐ I understand that concurrent students are expected to follow UAEACC academic integrity, attendance, communication, technology, and student conduct expectations, as well as applicable school district policies.

☐ I understand that A2A scholarship funding is subject to eligibility and credit-hour limits: 30 credit hours per academic year and 15 credit hours per semester. Charges not covered by A2A or another approved funding source may become the responsibility of the student and/or parent/guardian.

☐ I understand that the student should provide required immunization documentation and use the UAEACC email account as the official method of communication while enrolled.

☐ I understand that disclosure of academic information to school officials will be handled in accordance with FERPA, UAEACC policy, and the applicable MOU/data-sharing provisions.
